

Uniqueness

We celebrate our unique qualities and our diversity.

Values

Roots

We value our differences

We respect other people's beliefs and opinions

We celebrate individuality

We have a strong sense of self

We recognise other people's talents and abilities

Understanding

Stems

We know/understand:

- People have different backgrounds and experiences outside of school
- People have different family structures
- People have different personalities and we all have unique traits
- People have different interests, passions, talents and abilities
- People learn in different ways
- People have different faiths, beliefs and cultures
- People have different opinions
- People have different ethnicities, genders, sexualities
- People express themselves differently through their appearance and behaviours
- We are unique and this should be celebrated
- It is important to stay true to yourself and be proud of who you are

Behaviours

Leaves

Others

- Understanding of other people's home and family situations
- Respectful of other faiths, beliefs and cultures
- Respectful of different interest and passions
- Encourages other people's talents
- Encourages others to express themselves and accepting of these expressions
- Understanding of other people's financial situation
- Respectful of differing ethnicities, genders, sexualities
- Accepting of different learning styles and speeds

Ourselves

- Proud and unafraid of their uniqueness
- Strong sense of who they are

